

MR. CRAIG RIDDLE, Deputy Director PEO-EIS
Data Center Application and Optimization Office (DCAO)

Craig L. Riddle serves as Deputy Director of the PEO EIS Data Center Application and Optimization (DCAO) office. Mr. Riddle began his Navy Career receiving his commission upon graduation from the United States Naval Academy in 1981. After earning his NFO wings in Pensacola, he reported for fleet training with VS-41, San Diego. His twenty-one year navy career included numerous Squadron, Fleet operational and OPNAV staff assignments. Reporting to SPAWAR in 1999, he served as Deputy Program Manager for Advanced Technologies and Prototypes in Space and Naval Warfare SYSCOM-Advanced Concepts and Technologies Directorate; and as the Chief Knowledge Officer, before retiring his commission in 2002.

As SPAWAR HQ Staff, Mr. Riddle served as SPAWAR CIO's Chief Knowledge Officer, IT Operations Director and ERP Business Office Data Management and Business Intelligence Director, functioning as the principal technical and content subject matter expert and advisor to COMSPAWAR for networks, applications and productivity systems utilization, NMCI, SPAWAR HW/SW data architectures, data services policy, operations and metrics reporting. Mr. Riddle's advanced education and certifications includes an MS in Information Systems from the Naval Post-Graduate School, JPME at the Air Command and Staff College and the Armed Forces Staff College, and DAWIA LVL-III PM from DSMC with acceptance into the NAVY's Acquisition Professional Corps.